Were you satisfied with the Conference format and schedule? If not, what changes would you like to see made for future conferences.

Which sales ideas and business practices that were shared throughout the conference will be implemented in your own business?

Which of our guest speakers were the most motivational and/or inspirational in their message?

Which educational sessions (afternoon sessions) provided the most useful and valuable information?

Did you feel that all of our planned activities such as opening night events, coffee breaks, and the dinner/dancing gala were conducted in an organized fashion? If not, why?

What types of product sponsors and/or marketing strategists do you feel we should add for next year's conference?

Please share any additional comments or suggestions so that we can implement them in the planning of next year's conference.
